

Please do not grant Verizon's request to kill the "Number Portability" provision. We as consumers need to be able to keep our number no matter who our carrier is. We have it with our line based phones. Why should wireless be any different.